THE DEPEAT, PLEGHT, AND LOSSES OF FAUSTIS SOLOUQUE OPPICIALLY REPORTED - DOMINICAN RECOLLECTIONS OF NEURO RULE.

Our files from Saint Thomas, received on Saturday by se steamaning Tenuouses, contained some very interesting schematics to the disastrous defeat of the Hayden army, he Dominicans, which we publish today. We have less had translated the spirited and really patriotic at-resses made by Vice President Mota and General Sanon to their countrymen, in order to organize them for a sistance to the nagro invasion of their country. called on all its sons to hasten to defend, with arms, their nationality, to make respected the property of their own s'il, and to save their lives from the barbarity of the Haytiens. To day they are called on again to cover themse wes with immortal glory. If a number of Dominicans, infinitely inferior to their enemies, have, in Arus, Santiago. Beier, Estrelletts, Cachinent, and in other places, cefeated their haughty and tenacious invaders; if three hundred and eighty men in Las Carreras, under the command of the illustrious Gen. Santara, were sufficient to destroy the numerous army of the same Solouque, and to force him to a shameful retreat, what may we hope to-day, when the whole republic, as if moved by an electric shock, answers to the cry. "A los Armas!" and presents itself led on by the Dominicans! the supreme hour of glory approaches for us; that of anathema has sounded for our enemies. Their presence opposite our lines will mark their last aggression, for it will mark the moet spiendid triumph of the arms of our republic, and seal forever the security of our independence.

OPPIGIAL ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE DOMINICAN VICTORY—TRIUMPH OF THE CONQUERERS, AND LOSSES OF THE VANQUISHED.

We are in receipt of the Gaccia Oficial of the 25th of December, from which we translate the proclamation of the Vice President, announcing to the Dominicans the victory achieved over the Haytiens by their compatrious in arms.

the Vice President, announcing to the Dominicans the substory achieved over the Haytiens by their compatrious in arms:—

MANUEL DE REGLA MOTA, Vice President of the republic, actually entrusted with the Executive:—

Dominicans from the official communication I have received, under date of the 22d inst, from the illustrious General Liberator, I learn that our active army obtained on the 22d inst, near San Juan de la Maguana, a complete triumph over the troops of the Haytiens, who have been defeated and put into abamseful flight in Sabanas de San Tome, after having lost a consi lerable number of officers and soldiers, amongst whom were a General of Division, who had the command of the army, one piese of artillery, was stores, military instruments, their entire equipage and some prisoners, who are in our hands.

Although the number of the dead is already trightful, it will be still greater, since our brave soldiers have continued to pursue the enemy. We shall soon have a circumstantial report of this glorious action, which gives new splendor to the Dominican arms and augments the glory of our army.

Dominicans! confide in the holiness of your cause, which has always been protected by the strong arm of the Almighty, and confide likewise in your commandants and the valor and well directed dispositions of our illustrious General Liberator.

Viva la republica Dominicana!

SUOLOUGE IN FULL RETREAT—PLENTY OF KENTUCKY
MIT LEE IN SAN DOMINGO.

Our late remarks relating to the defeat of the vanguard of the army of his imperial Majesty Faustin I. have been confirmed by the arrival of the schooner Cecilia from Porto Plate.

It appears that on the 23d ult. the advanced guard of the Haytien army was on its way from Petit frou to Azua, but had hardly left the former village when the noble buke whe commanded it found the roads already in possession of the Dominicans, who, in their immediate onset, gave a striking proof to the Haytiens that the roads—at least on the Eastern part of the island—were not spacious enough for two; the vanguard fell back on the body of the army on picime relevate, which, our correspondent thinks, means, in plain English, in full flight.
On the same day the Haytien army came up, near 20,000 strong, and immediately the Dominican order of hattic was formed. We regret, however, that we are not made acquainted with the numbers of the Dominicans;
but, however that may be, the firing soon became extessuely warm on both sides, and after a severe struggle of three or four hours duration, the Haytien army best a tattoe and disappeared from the field, leaving 2,000 in stilled and wounded behind. The military results, also, we are informed, are very greet.

The Dominicans are said to have lost 700 in killed and wounded.

The question now to be asked in, will his Imperial

The question now to be asked is, will his Imperial Mejesty Faustin I. venture another invasion of the Bomini an republic? and if he does, will his troops follow him to those dustant parts, where fatigue and hunger, and to tacky; rifles and machets are as pleutiful as hucklesses. The property was properly a reply.

Relief for Kansas—Ohio Legislature — House
Of Representatives, Perrudy from the Governor, containing a communication from certain civil officers in Kansas, which was read at the Certa's deak :—
To the General Assembly of the States of Ohio—
I transmit for the consideration of the General Assembly a communication from certain gentlemen holding official positions in Kansas.

The urguery of the appeal made by the communication herewith transmitted, induses me to lay it do ore

It is authenticated by the signatures of James H. Lang.
Chairman of the Executive C mulitor of Kansas Territory, of Charles Robinson, the Governor, and George W.
Belizier, the Secretary, elected by the people under the recently adopted State constitution.

It represents that an overwheming force of citizens of Missouri to organising upon the borders of Kansas, wi h
the avowed purpose of invading the Territory, demolishing its towardand sutchering its free State citizens.

The object of the contemplated mysas not Kansas is to compel its inhabitants to suemit to the establishment of slavery.

The progress of slavehok'ing aggression is very remarkable.

In 1820 the slave power insisted on the admission of less.

It is impossible to contemplate these things without deep feeling. They are the legitimate fruits of the repeal of the Missouri prohibition. It may not be possible at present to re-establish that prohibition. It is perhaps not possible that Congress, as at pre-ent constitute i, will consent to the admission of Kanasa into the Union under her free State constitution. The General Assembly of Ohio has, perhaps, to legislative power to redress the wrongs of the peop e of the Territory; but still something, not unimportant, may be done.

The General Assembly can express the sense of the people of Ohio, in resolutions addressed to their Senators and Representatives in Congress. They can recommend the admission of Kanasa as a free State; the enactment of a suitable law securing treedom of elections in case the Territorial government be not superseded; and what, perhaps, is of more importance still, the prompt admission of the delegate of the people to a seat in Congress, that he may have the most favorable opportunity of gaining the attention of the national legislature to their wants and their wrongs.

The General Assembly may also, by suitable resolutions, commend the cause of Kanasa to the warm sympathies and liberal contributors of their constituents. They will not, I am arms, invoke the prompt action of the people in vain.

Having thus performed what seemed to me to be my duty, in transmitting to you the communication of the popular authorities in Kanasa, with nuch observations as the occasion appeared to demand, I cheerfully submit the whole matter to the superior wisdom of the General Assembly.

LAWRENGE CTLY, K. T., Jan. 21, 1866.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR OF OURD—

Yesterday evening a telegraphic despatch was re-ceived by Captain Carpenter, of the Fifth ward police, from the Boston authorities, informing him that a man from the Boston authorities, informing him that a man named John Donohoe, charged with grand larceny, had left in the morning train for New York in company with two females of rather doubtful character, and requesting him to arrest the accused as soon as he arrived in this city. In accordance with the wishes of the Boston police, Sergeant Smith and officer Evans, of the Fifth police cistrict, were despatched to the New Haven Railroad depot, where they awaited in readiness for the approach of the 7 o'clock train. On its arrival in this city, Donohoe was taken into custody and conveyed to the Fith ward station house, where upon searching him $760 in double eagles were found in his possession.
